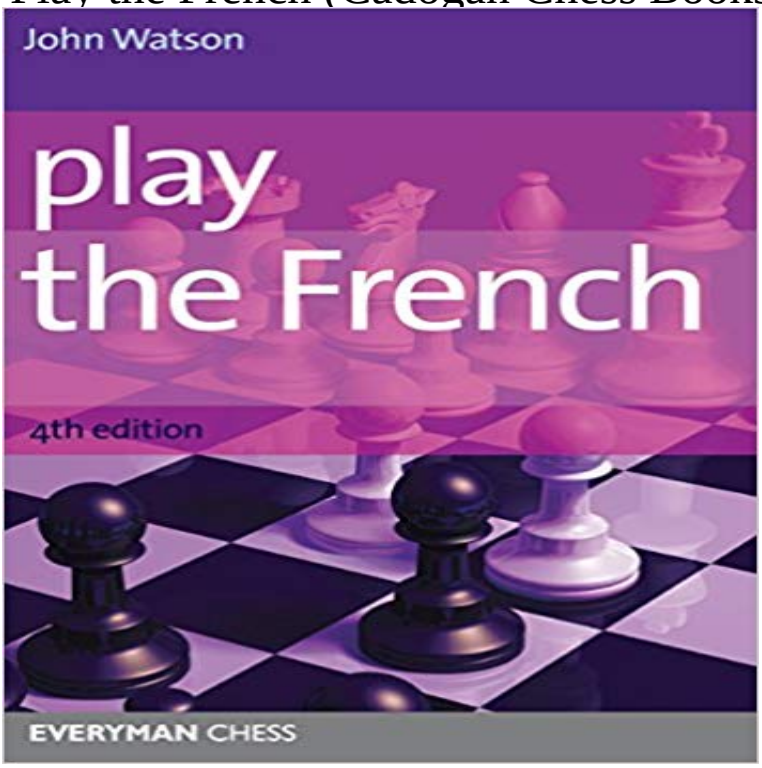
Play the French (Cadogan Chess Books)



The wait is over. Finally its here... the much anticipated 4th edition of John Watsons Play the French the must-have book for all French Defence players for over 20 years!Watsons highly acclaimed work presents a repertoire for Black in the French Defence against all of Whites recognized options. Just as in previous editions, Watson often arms the reader with not just one but sometimes two or even three choices against the main lines. He also provides a thorough grounding on the positional and tactical aspects of the opening and outlines the typical plans for both White and Black. Watson is renowned for his creativity and expertise in the opening, and once again this edition features an abundance of innovative ideas for Black. Watson also provides an update of many other lines he considered in previous editions.* A French Defence repertoire for Black* State-of-the-art coverage of the key lines* Packed with new ideas and critical analysis
