

A Slip of the Pen: The Writers Book of Blunders

A Slip of the Pen is a painstakingly researched and thoroughly entertaining collection of some of literatures most hilarious, unexpected, and down-right odd bloopers. Notorious for seeking out strange yet true stories, laws, recipes, eulogies and sexual fads, author Peter Haining has trawled through countless libraries, newspapers and magazines to bring together a rich harvest of double-entendres, mixed-up-metaphors, comical first-lines, critics clangers and authors gaffs and howlers. Each piece is wittily introduced; curious opening lines from Dickens to Kafka; fantastic fictions whose titles are too bad to be true; and hilarious double entendres committed by those who should have known better. A great addition to the Robson bestsellers Anguished English, Foolish Words, Famous Last Words and Put Downs.
