Now that Mona Preston is thirty years old, she no longer wants to live under the control of her domineering parents and the megachurch they co-pastor together. Her sole desire is to be happy, so she packs her bags and flees to the arms of her ex-fiance, the only man she has truly ever loved. Unfortunately, when she arrives at his door, things don't go as planned. Issues from the past quickly resurface, and Mona is confronted with information she thought her ex-fiance didn't know. Will her dream of reconciliation come true, or is the past too much to overcome?
