

Abiyoyo Book and CD

Once there was a little boy who played the ukelele. Wherever hed go hed play, Clink, clunk, clonk. His father was a magician. Wherever hed go, hed make things disappear, Zoop! Zoop! Soon the townspeople grew tired of the boys noise and his fathers tricks, and banished both of them to the edge of town. There they lived, until one day the terrible giant Abiyoyo appeared. He was as tall as a tree, and it was said that he could eat people up. Everyone was terrified, except the boy and his father, and they came up with a plan to save the town.... Pete Seegers storysong, made up for his own children, finds its perfect match in Michael Hayss masterful paintings. As a special bonus, this edition includes a CD of Pete performing two different versions of Abiyoyo. Youll love to follow and sing along as you listen to Pete tell this richly vivid and exciting story.
