

The Literacy Bridge - Large Print - Daughter of Madrugada

As the only daughter in the de Haro family, thirteen-year-old Cesa has a wonderful life. She's a princess to her father, a leader to her five younger brothers, and a constant disappointment to her great-aunt, who wants Cesa to assume the responsibilities of a woman. The author of the acclaimed first novel Becoming Rosemary transports readers to the abundant, pristine California of the 1840s in a lyrical tribute to its people. Available only in The Literacy Bridge 5.
