Millawanda is dying. In saving the planet Gazz, the powerful Gamadin ship has burned up the last blue crystal she had for power. The ancients called it aara. She can get by on thermo-grym, but for how long? According to Leucadia and Wizs calculations, Millie must return to her origin, a place or planet named Orix, or she will not survive. According to the ancient scrolls of Hitt, Orix is located somewhere at the heart of the galaxy. . . the Galactic Core. A quest fraught with peril, running on only a fraction of their normal power, the Crew is dogged by ruthless killers known as Mysterians, as they embark on a one-way, 35,000 light-year torturous path across the galaxy that no one has traveled for over 17,000 years! Who knows what they will find. . .
