

Budapest

A perfect example of modern photography, Budapest - Photography By Richard J Jones is photographic homage to the city, its architecture and history. Through the use of textural overlays, grain, contrast and colour, the photographic infra-red and colour digital images have been pushed into a gritty, grungy, abstract artist world, creating surreal landscapes. This will make a great coffee table book, conversation starter or inspiration for budding photographer. For those that love Budapest, this will be a timeless journey through emotion and memories from many of the citys famous landmarks.
