

Chart Topper (The Opportunity)

Harmon Holt always gets what he wants and since he's a billionaire, what he's got includes music, movie, and TV studios, news networks, and a football team. Yeah, he's got everything, but he hasn't forgotten where he came from. Every year he picks one student from his old high school for an interview, no application to be a paid intern at one of his companies. The money's good and the perks are great, but the opportunity is once in a lifetime. Beth didn't think that the song she posted on YouTube would be noticed by more than a few classmates at Clinton High. She was wrong. Harmon Holt noticed, and now she's an intern at his Bonified Records company, a label with a reputation for megahits. Can she help the label's number one star find her voice even if that voice isn't what the executives want?
