Book 1: Rumspringa Break - Rebekah and her twin sister Mercy turn sixteen and embark on Rumspringa, the Amish rite of passage. Together, they discover the outside world, dressing in English clothes, cruising to the city, and partying with college students. Rebekah meets a stunning pre-veterinary student named Braeden, who encourages her to follow her dreams of becoming a veterinarian. As her appreciation of the English lifestyle blossoms, Rebekah is faced with a massive dilemma. How can she pursue a college education and still remain accepted by her Amish community? Can she and Braeden overcome their cultural differences and build a relationship--and will her family and friends still talk to her if they do? Book 2: Amish Summer - Braeden surprises Rebekah with exciting news: he's been accepted to a competitive pre-veterinary summer internship, and his supervisor has invited Rebekah along. As Rebekah dabbles in the worldly English life, she finds herself torn between her Amish faith and her desires to date Braeden and become a vet. Rebekah is faced with a heart-breaking question: What life is right for her, English or Amish? What life will she choose? Book 3: Mercys Fall - Rebekah's sister Mercy is the flirtiest Amish girl in Pennsylvania. She never has a shortage of dates, and she likes it that way. Then Chase, a mysterious Englisher, catches Mercy's eye and captures her heart. But there's also Samuel, the smart, sensitive Amish boy Mercy has known for years. Mercy thinks he just might be the guy for her if only she could get him to forget about Rebekah, whom he has a massive crush on! Suddenly, the girl who never planned to settle down finds herself in love with two guys at once. It's an autumn for Mercy to fall, and fall hard. But who is right for her, Chase or Samuel? And how can she keep the guys secret from each other in her small community? Book 4: Amish Valentine - Mercy has finally discovered true love with Samuel. The only problem: Samuel hasn't even looked her way since he caught her kissing an Englisher last fall. And worse yet, he's courting another girl, the sugary-sweet Miriam. Mercy figures out a way that Rebekah can help her to get Samuel back, just in time for the Valentines Day sled-riding party. Everything will be wunderbar if only the girls can get Samuel to cooperate! Will Mercys plan work? Will Samuel be her Amish Valentine this year? Download today to find out!
