

The Paris Journal: Book One

Where did that second waiter sneak off to? There. He has rounded the corner and lit up a cigarette. Rough night. With one foot against the wall he takes a long drag. I wonder what kept him up all night? Insomnia? Tolstoy? No, a break up. That crazy Pauline with her possessiveness and drunk dialing. This exhilarating fictional diary of a day in Paris combines laugh-out-loud journal entries with over 140 sumptuous photographs from Nichole Robertson - Amazon #1 bestselling author of PARIS IN COLOR.
