

Fools Gold (The Skinners of Goldfield, Book 1)

O. T. Skinner and his family have no intention of staying more than a day in the gold rush town of Goldfield, Nevada. But next to their tent is a starving family with a drunken father, and nearby an old woman insists she's sitting atop a gold mine and won't let anyone near her. And the Skinners are in the middle of a deadly feud -- after being there one day! So many in need of a helping hand and someone to share the riches of Christ, but everyone there would rather seek a quick fortune than a lasting treasure. This simple family with their simple faith is about to make a bigger difference than all the gold in Goldfield.
