

Skinniness is Next to Goddessness? Books One-Three: Lacey's Story, Annas Story, Saras Story

Am I ... pretty, funny, skinny, smart, popular, perfect, controlled, interesting, talented, strong ... enough? Join Lacey, the Ugly Duckling, Anna, the girl with the flawless reputation, and Sara, the Plain Jane, as they attempt to find out. Lacey's Story (Book One) Lacey Steele has never been good enough. Tucker Long is the little brother of Lacey's ten year crush. Will their relationship ever go beyond friendship? Long shapely legs, tiny waists, and oversized bosoms adorn all of the Steele women. Expect for Lacey. In a household where looks come second to none, Lacey has always felt unwanted and basically a failure. And when Tuck is propelled into highest stratosphere of popularity with his football prowess, Lacey's outward shortcomings even take Tuck from her. That's the last straw. With her friend, Ashley, they form the future Goddess girls club. And after a few tiny shortcuts Lacey's chubby figure is discarded like an old, ugly coat. But just as life seems to become exactly what they want, the shortcut reveals its price, one much too high to pay. Anna's Story (Book Two) Anna is a girl with a perfect plan. Rhys is a teen-aged, single dad. Can the little girl who has captured both of their hearts save them? Well-disciplined, well-planned, and well-executed. Follow these guidelines and, bam, you'll have the ideal life. At least that's what sixteen-year-old Anna Kaneshiro has always believed. She's followed this mantra in order to excel in school, start to overcome her eating disorder, and become the youngest quiz bowl captain in Woodlands High history. So when Anna's cousin runs out on her baby, ever-responsible Anna has to step up in the way her cousin should have. But when Anna's flawless reputation she's worked so hard to create is threatened, she inadvertently allows the unthinkable to happen to the baby she's now fallen in love with and realizes, a little too late, that she had her priorities in a twisted mess all her life. Will Annas mistake cost the life of baby she loves? Saras Story (Prequel/Book Three) Sara has a life she should be happy with. Blake appears to have the life anyone would be happy with. But should and would just aren't enough. Sara Chandler knows she should be happy with her life. Her best friend would even describe it as perfect. Sara has the perfect boyfriend, the perfect grades, the perfect family, and she's almost secured her spot as the perfect editor of The Gazette, her school newspaper. But what some view as perfect, Sara sees as boring and feels something is missing. She can't help but think her something missing might be in the form of a dark-eyed wrestler, Blake Brandon. Sara knows that her crush is just that, a crush. But when Sara finds Blake literally at her feet, Saras perfect life flies out the window. Although Saras new life in what must be an alternate reality appears to be absolutely wonderful, Sara is wary. And she has every right to be. Especially when she finds out what Blake has been hiding. And a bonus novel! Heart Thief A Skinniness is Next to Goddessness? Companion Book Daisys dated frog after frog and is pushed to the point of declaring a dating hiatus, just days before Valentines Day, following one break-up too many. Daisys biggest problem in her pursuit of the one, she already found him ... and then he left town to pursue his dream. Her very own heart thief. But when Mr. Heart Thief decides to move back to Woodlands, will he be everything Daisy remembered? Will Daisy be what he wants? And what about the dating hiatus? Skinniness is Next to Goddessness?
