

Kidnapped In The Old West: A Pair Of Christian Romance Novellas

Kidnapped By Bandits From Our Wagon Train, is about two young women who decide to take the wagon train west and towards a new life. While camped one night, bandits attack them and the two women are taken off into the night, along with several wagons and much of their supplies. There appears to be no hope for their future, but one woman in particular is sure she can turn things around through her love of God, and her bible. Kidnapped From The Wagon Train, is about a teacher who needs to find a new job because her a schoolhouse is being torn down. Looking in the newspaper to see what might be available -- anywhere -- she spots an ad for both a schoolteacher in California and a mail order bride wanted by the same store owner who placed the ad. Chancing it, she writes to him and then deciding to risk it all she packs up her things and heads out west on a wagon train. She is suddenly wrenched away from the path that God has chosen for her when, one evening, her life takes a violent U-turn.
