

Lizbets Lie (The Edgemont Series Book 4)

Assaulted and pregnant, sixteen-year-old Lizbet Morgan is shipped off to give birth in secrecy and hand her baby over to strangers. When she returns home to her family's strict religious community, she is expected to pick up where she left off. But the nightmare isn't over. Her friend Johnny isn't the only one asking questions, and Lizbet fears that the reason for her absence will soon be discovered. She must decide whether to tell the truth or continue to obey a religious system that forces her to tell intolerable lies.
