

London Belongs to Us

Twelve hours, two boys, one girl . . . and a whole lot of hairspray. Seventeen-year-old Sunnys always been a little bit of a pushover. But when shes sent a picture of her boyfriend kissing another girl, she knows shes got to act. What follows is a mad, twelve-hour dash around London - starting at 8pm in Crystal Palace (so far away from civilisation you cant even get the Tube there) then sweeping through Camden, Shoreditch, Soho, Kensington, Notting Hill . . . and ending up at 8am in Alexandra Palace. Along the way Sunny meets a whole host of characters she never dreamed shed have anything in common with - least of all the devilishly handsome (and somewhat vain) French twins (theyre really cousins) Jean Luc and Vic. But as this love-letter to London shows, a city is only a sum of its parts, and really its the people living there who make up its life and soul. And, as Sunny discovers, everyone - from friends, apparent-enemies, famous bands and even rickshaw drivers - is willing to help a girl on a mission to get her romantic retribution. A fast-paced, darkly funny love letter to London, boys with big hair and the joys of staying up all night.
