

Fight To The End

Michael reluctantly returns to school from being on summer holidays. Hes now in year 11, but being a senior carries no weight for him. Michael has been relentlessly bullied for years. As a consequence he has no friends and the teachers couldnt care less about the problem, happier to ignore what happens and pretend it doesnt exist, rather than do anything about it. Hes at the point where hes about to give up on everything when he meets an annoying year 9 by the name of Xavier. Michael at first is reluctant to talk to Xavier, however, their paths cross through being on detention, for things they werent really responsible for. Michael eventually stops being hostile and starts to talk. Soon, the boys find they have a lot in common and although Michael is extremely cautious about trusting Xavier, the two become friends. The story sees Michaels life tossed about, as he is continually bullied, abused and beaten up. Michael struggles to keep it together as there seems to be no escape from being bashed up and humiliated. His friendship with Xavier starts to make a real difference to his life, but its not an easy path, little does he know Xavier is receiving the same treatment. The effects bullying has had on Michael, becomes more and more apparent, as he feels increasingly insecure and uncertain about everything. Xavier however, reawakens Michaels confidence and brings out his fighting spirit. Through their friendship the boys do their best to battle through their school days. Eventually, things come to ahead as the bullies and the school try to destroy the boys friendship...
