

Princeton Review Speak Smart: How to Overcome Your Fears and Give Great Speeches (Living Language Series)

How to Overcome Your Fears and Give Great Speeches
Conquer stage fright
Prepare effective presentations
Get your point across persuasively
If you'd rather die a thousand deaths than speak in front of a crowd, then this course is for you. Speak Smart shows you how to make effective presentations to any audience, from classmates to colleagues to the local PTA. The two cassettes include writing and preparing a speech using outlines, notes, scripts or ad-libbing using a microphone and visual aids, overcoming stage fright, making the most of body language, handling difficult questions from the audience. Speak Smart presents essential information and advice with The Princeton Review's well-known sense of humor and irreverence, getting the point across in a lively, memorable way. This program is ideal for students, professionals, and anyone who wants to communicate fearlessly. Also available: Interview Smart, Negotiate Smart, plus the best-selling Word Smart and Grammar Smart audiocassettes from Living Language and The Princeton Review
