

Firebird Jim

What would you do if James Dean needed your help? Madison lives a relatively uneventful life in small town New Mexico: hanging out with friends at the drive-in, volunteering at the local raptor center, and fighting off the advances of her high schools star quarterback. All of that changes when a boy named Jim appears suddenly out of the desert. Wheres he from? Whats he doing there? And why does he look exactly like 1950s movie star James Dean? Even he doesnt seem to know. Unable to resist helping someone in need, Madison sets out to find some answers. Soon, she finds herself in the middle of a mystery that just keeps growing. The closer she gets to Jim, the more questions arise until finally shes forced to make a choice: give up on Jim or give up everything that shes ever known. www.firebirdjim.com
