

Poems of Ralph Waldo Emerson (Classic Reprint)

Sphinx is drowsy, Her wings are furled;
Her ear is heavy, She broods on the world.
Who'll tell me my secret, The ages have kept?
I waited the seer, While they slumbered and slept;
The fate of the man-child; The meaning of man; Known fruit of the unknown; Daedalian plan; Out of sleeping a waking, Out of waking a sleep;
Life death overtaking; Deep underneath deep?
Ere as a sunbeam, Upspringeth the palm;
The elephant browses, Undaunted and calm;
I nbeautiful motion The thrush plies his wings:
Kind leaves of his covert, Your silence he sings.
