The Destroyer of Humanity has been activated. Rav's true identity comes to light when he goes on a murderous rampage through Odyssia, leaving nothing safe. Awakened from the sleeper state he had been living in for all of his life, Rav discovers the dark forces at work in his mind and in the computerized parts controlling him. Made from alien Olonitic technology and disguised as a human for the sole purpose of eliminating the human race from existence, Rav must find a way to keep his abilities under control . . . or risk his sanity and the lives of those he loves most.
