Some Quotes From Thomas Jefferson Quotes: 365 Quotes By Thomas Jefferson Do you want to know who you are? Dont ask. Act! Action will delineate and define you. A coward is much more exposed to quarrels than a man of spirit. A politician looks forward only to the next election. A statesman looks forward to the next generation. A library book lasts as long as a house, for hundreds of years. It is not an article for mere consumption, but fairly of capital, and often in the case of professional men, setting out in life, it is their only capital. Bodily decay is gloomy in prospect, but of all human contemplations the most abhorrent is body without mind. I find that he is happiest of whom the world says least, good or bad. Some More Quotes From Thomas Jefferson Quotes: 365 Quotes By Thomas Jefferson Educate and inform the whole mass of the people. They are the only sure reliance for the preservation of our liberty. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. How much pain they have cost us, the evils which have never happened. Honesty is the first chapter in the book of wisdom. He who receives an idea from me, receives instruction himself without lessening mine; as he who lights his taper at mine, receives light without darkening me. I am not among those who fear the people. They, and not the rich, are our dependence for continued freedom. Get Your Copy Of Thomas Jefferson Quotes: 365 Quotes By Thomas Jefferson Today. Some More Quotes From Thomas Jefferson Quotes: 365 Quotes By Thomas Jefferson I have never believed there was one code of morality for a public and another for a private man I however place economy among the most important of virtues and public debt among the greatest dangers to be feared. In every country where man is free to think and to speak, difference of opinion will arise from difference of perception, and the imperfection of reason It has been a source of great pain to me to have met with so many among my opponents who had not the liberality to distinguish between political and social opposition; who transferred at once to the person, the hatred they bore to his political opinions. Some men look at constitutions with sanctimonious reverence, and deem them like the ark of the covenant, too sacred to be touched. They ascribe to the men of the preceding age a wisdom more than human, and suppose what they did to be beyond amendment. The glow of one warm thought is to me worth more than money.
