

The Pencil Test

Kendry wants a life as hearty and remarkable as the lives of the black girls. Kendry wants a cheating boyfriend who gets on her last damn nerve. Kendry wants to smoke marijuana and be bold enough to announce it on a crowded train. Kendry wants the black girls' struggles, their tragedies, their poverty, and their resilience. Kendry wants to stand among them and complain sassily about her mother. Most of all, Kendry wants to be friends with the black girls. Kendry wants to belong.
