In 2 volumes of 522 and 533 pages, these are the 1906 copies printed in the U.S., with better paper, truer illustrations and very handsome covers: while linen with maroon labels and date 1906 on foot of spine. These two volumes have just been rebound at our in house bindery on Cape Cod, offered here for the first time anywhere, quite handsome and collectable in this condition. No marks of any kind, new clean endpapers and looking out from your bookshelf in a striking way. We are reducing our stock by reducing our prices, like these two handsome volumes for under a hundred dollars. 1906 was the copyright date for printing in Boston; they have just been rebound in while linen/maroon labels recently.
