

The Reckoning (The Fahllen Book 2)

Carson Porter thought shed had one of her most challenging years to date when she began her transformation into a reaper, but little did she know her battle had only just begun. Faced with changes in her boyfriend, Derek, the fear of her sister being able to steal her powers through mirrors and having to fight her every step of the way to rescue even one soul, Carson is ready to throw in the towel. Only she cant. During a visit from an angel, Carson learns that her destiny is far more important than even she realized and far more deadly. Can she dig deep within herself for the strength and the perseverance that shell need to carry out her mission? And will she have to do so without Derek or can she recover the man shed once loved so desperately? Find out in the exciting conclusion of the Fahllen series, The Reckoning. About Michelle: I love coffee and chocolate, even more so when they are combined. Im convinced that one day they could be the basis for world peace. I also love the color red and am seriously considering dying my hair.
