

Obamas Alien Conspiracy With The Beast: The Temptation Of Man

During our present to very near future, alien spacecrafts, encompass the Earth, leading President Obama to confront the world and acknowledge that the U.S. Government has known about and has concealed a decades-long relationship with alien beings. He informs us of their reason for coming and that the world must make a decision. We can either take their help and save the world and humanity as we know it, or go on to an ecological world-wide disaster that we will not recover from for our careless governance over our planets ecology. Quickly, the world chooses to join the alien confederation of over 600 civilizations called the Galaxy of Devine Saved Worlds in the Heavenly Universe. The Earth is saved and the alien presence is welcomed and flourishes. Not all are happy with the alien alliance and work to thwart this coalition at all turns. In the middle are two stoners, Jason, and Bill whose family thrives in this relationship, selling marijuana to a small population of aliens on the mothership. All seems great, but before our world can become an enlightened savior of the galaxy, we must go through several birth pains spoken of in the Bible. As our worlds begin to coalesce and collide, we see an alternate agenda than the heaven on Earth we had hoped for. Together Bill and his hot new alien girlfriend grow together while they observe the world tear itself apart. If you follow current events, believe in aliens and/or God, you will thoroughly enjoy this book, as the end days of the Bible are played out.
